17- 18 SEPTEMBER, 2015

Keynote Speakers (preliminary)

Jason Schenker (USA, Prestige Economics)

Martijn van der Horst (The Netherlands, Erasmus University Rotterdam)

Julie Felker (USA, University of Michigan)

Call for Papers

The main focus of this conference is on entrepreneurship, innovation and regional development and how application of smart methods, models and approaches can foster businesses and regional development.

Conference Themes

The conference committee welcomes any contribution that will advance our understanding of the role of entrepreneurship associated with innovative and smart approaches to ensure sustainable business development. However, we are particularly keen to receive papers that address one or more of the following themes,

- ✓ SMEs and innovation systems;
- ✓ Smart community and its role in regional development;
- ✓ Utilization of smart technologies – key factor for business growth;
- ✓ Comparing different innovative and smart approaches to the promotion of economic development in peripheral regions;
- ✓ The role of local government for successful development of a region;
- ✓ Analysis and implementation of smart port models;
- ✓ Social entrepreneurship and regional development.

Abstracts

Full abstracts clearly highlighting contribution of the research, methodology and key results should be submitted by August 20, 2015. Please e-mail abstract to the conference secretary Egita Udodova, e-mail address egitau@venta.lv. Abstracts have to be submitted in English. The paper title must be in capital letters on the first line, with the author(s) name, organization name, correspondence address, phone and e-mail address under the title.

Following the blind review process, notification about the acceptance of the papers will be sent by September 3, 2015.

The authors of accepted papers will receive an invitation to submit a paper for conference proceedings. Completed papers must be submitted to the conference secretary by September 30, 2015.
